You Are Invited

You are cordially invited to attend the Aviall Maintenance SuperSeminar to be held at The Tropicana Casino & Resort, Brighton & The Boardwalk Atlantic City NJ 08401-6390, September 9 & 10, 2004

The Aviall SuperSeminar

This program is designed for today's aviation environment in response to a need identified by the FBOs, business aircraft operators and regional airlines. Product seminars, maintenance seminars and manufacturer exhibits will cover both turbine and piston applications. Emphasis will be placed on the practical application of the tools and procedures discussed during the trade show.

Attendees Will Benefit

This program offers attendees the opportunity to talk with people in all phases of the aviation industry, to participate in discussions involving everyday problems and solutions, to be exposed to new products and programs displayed by many of the world's leading aviation parts and components manufacturers, and meet with Aviall representatives involved with part distribution and turbine engine
